

Peter Pauli, Chairman and CEO

Chairman and investor since 2017, additionally CEO since August 2018.

Founder of EPASUS AG in 2017.

For 14 years he was CEO and Member of the Board of Directors of Meyer Burger Technology Ltd, a leading global technology company. Following its successful IPO in 2006, Meyer Burger recorded the strongest increase in value of all companies publicly listed on the Swiss stock exchange in 2007. Prior to this, Peter Pauli spent 17 years in management positions at the Siegling Group.

From 2012 -2019 he was a Member of the Board of Directors of Gurit Holding AG.

Several on-going or closed functions as Member of the Board of Directors of other companies since 2012.

Education:

Holds a diploma in industrial engineering and has completed further business studies at INSEAD in Fontainebleau, France and at the Swiss Board School in the International Center for Corporate Governance at the HSG in St. Gallen, Switzerland.
He is a member of various sustainability networks.